

Drafting with PAR-TEA Sources

Point of view

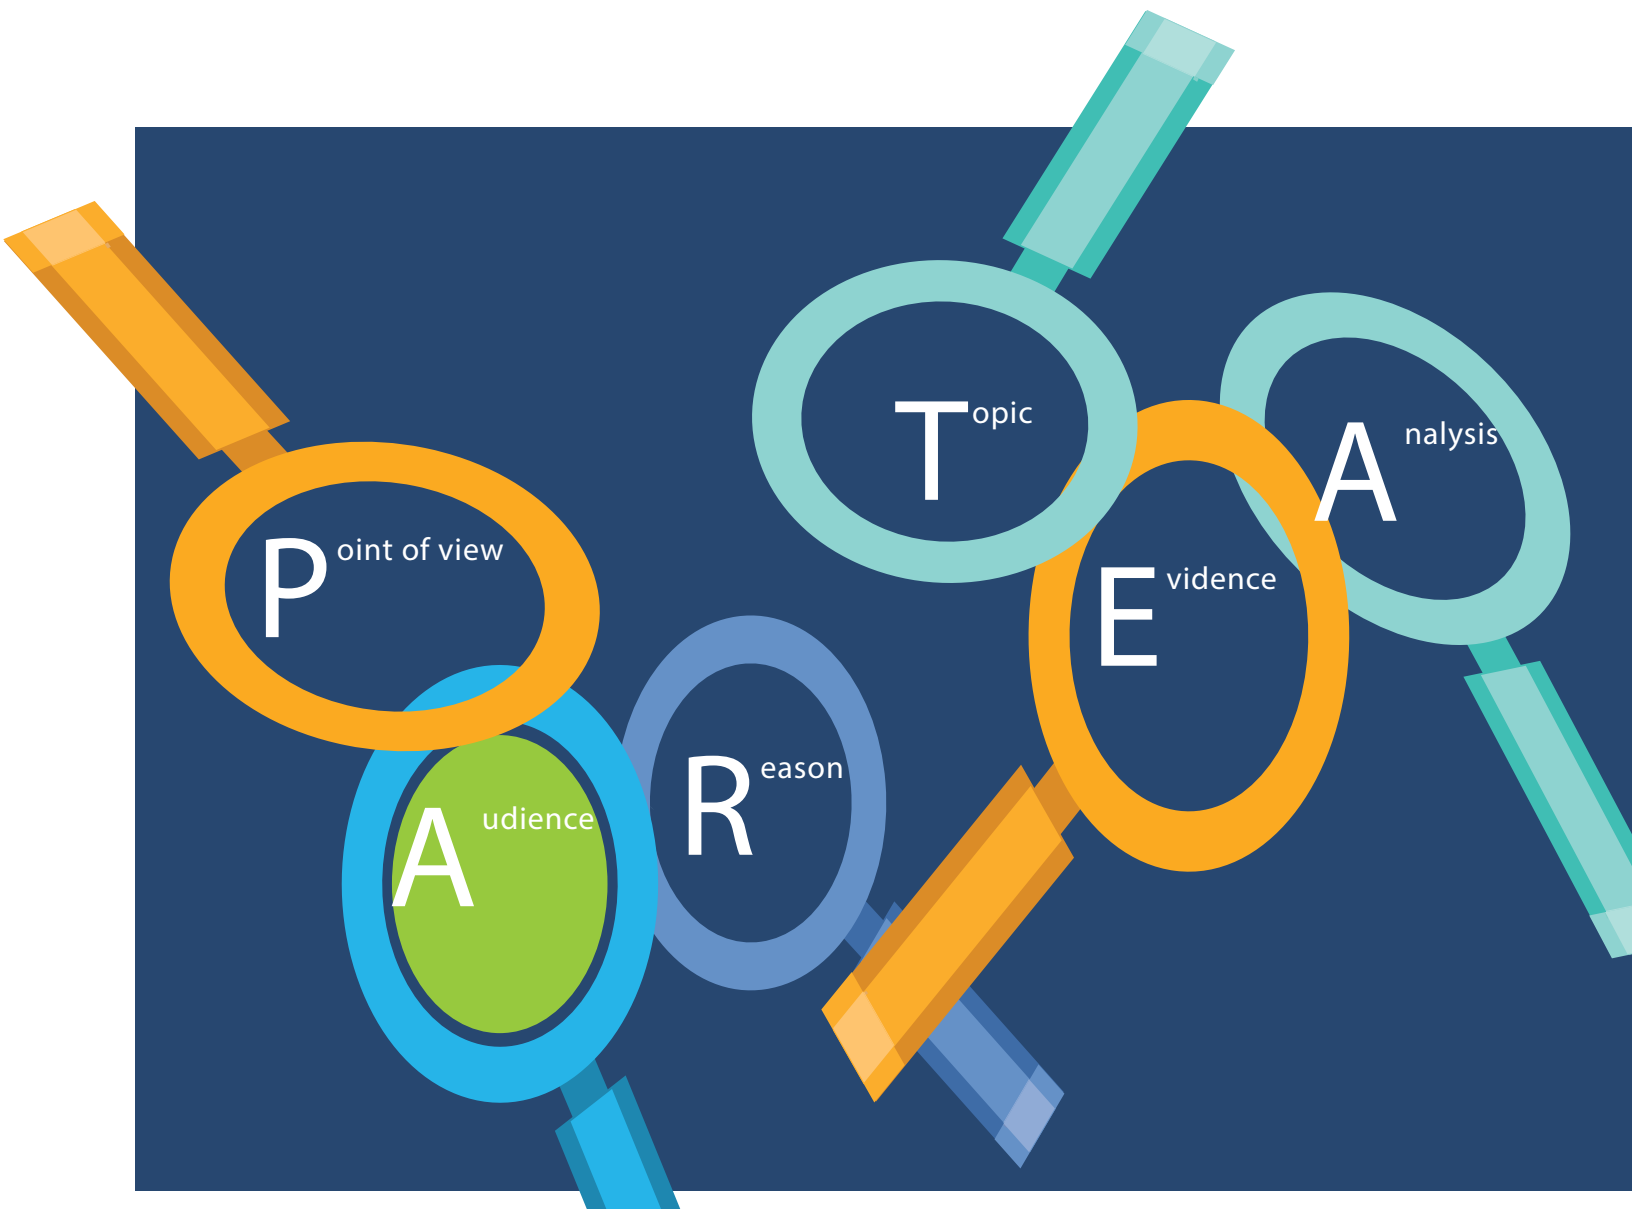

Who is the author?
Who is the publisher?
What is their perspective?

Audience

Who is the intended audience?
What is their perspective?
What was happening in their lives?

Reason

Why did the author write this?
What was the author hoping the audience would understand?

Write a first version.

Topic

What is this about?
What is the main idea?

Evidence

What evidence is important?
What quote, data, or information is important to note?

Analysis

What does this evidence tell me?
Why is this evidence important?

Sample

P The author is ...
A The audience is from....
R The article was written to persuade...
T The main idea of the article is...
E Important evidence includes... and ...
A This evidence helps explain why...